

I'm writing in support of K-LOVE radio station which provides a positive influence on my family with its Christian programming. I would really miss this part of my daily commute if it were replaced by an LPFM broadcaster. I believe that K-LOVE impacts my community by encouraging listeners to love their neighbors.